

University of Virginia Curry School of Education

Leadership Program Information Night for Northern Virginia Educators

Become a leader who makes a difference.

You are invited to an information session about the Curry School of Education's master's program in educational leadership. A new cohort program begins Summer 2018. To be eligible for the M.Ed. program in administration, you must have completed by June 2018 a minimum of three years of teaching (or 3 years in educational counseling, media, etc.).

Our program is ranked #1 in the state and #10 in the nation.* We feature these elements in our Master's program:

- Online and face-to-face courses with convenient schedules for working professionals
- An equity-focused leadership strand in selected coursework
- A focus on improvement science in selected coursework
- Application of learning in field-based experiences
- Course work meets requirements for administration and supervision certification in Virginia

Join us to reshape education to serve all students well.
